Featured Author Jerry L. Rhoads

CPA, author, entrepreneur, CEO of Caregiver Management Systems, Inc. and All-American Care, LLC, Honors graduate with a degree in Liberal Arts and Business from Simpson College. Consultant to State and Federal governments regarding Medicare, Medicaid costing and pricing principles. Expert witness for that purpose. Was an Arthur Andersen & Co. healthcare consultant to Blue Cross of America that implemented Medicare and Medicaid nationally in the late 1960's and 1970's. Then started his own CPA firm that serviced hospitals, nursing homes, physicians, and long-term care campuses. Filing cost reports, setting up standardized charting and cost systems. This evolved into a management consulting practice of managing long term care facilities, getting licensed as a Healthcare Administrator, then into ownership of three skilled nursing facilities with a plan of franchising the concepts presented in his nine health care books. www.jerryrhoadsauthor.com

The Covid19 Pandemic has moved the paradigm of prevention to the top priority. CDC states for every dollar not spent on prevention costs society trillions of dollars would be wasted on Medicare for All coverage. If enacted, it will bankrupt any and every country in the world. While political parties are speculating on how to fund free health coverage for an aging, and unhealthy society with 100% coverage. Due to aging causing, chronic diseases inhibiting the cost of care, prevention must enter into the feasibility equation.

Len Tomaka

Native Chicagoan, married, divorced - we were not blessed with children. Retired. His college was a Chicago Local Union #597 pipe fitter apprenticeship. Worked as project manager for mechanical contractors in industrial and commercial construction. Spent five years in the United States Marine Corps Reserve. Holds three US patents. Author of second book - RETORTS.

To soon old, too late smart. Over the course of my life, I have happened upon sayings that apply to specific situations in our lives. Actually, they relate powerful lessons. Over time, I jotted down many of these real-world insights and also began to compile a list of my personal experiences that I expected to pass along to my children.

But I was married for thirteen years then divorced. We were not blessed with children. So, I passed these sayings along to pipe fitter apprentices who worked with me, and the lessons were received very well. Now I wish to share them with a larger audience, to the children and grandchildren I never had.

To the parents who may read this, I acknowledge that my list refers to many situations that you might already be familiar with, but some of them may have slipped through the cracks in your advice to your children.

Who can benefit from reading them? Anyone of any age actually can draw knowledge from these—whether one is working, playing, or attending the school of hard knocks.

Create Digital Planners

The big problem with launching a digital product was by the time I finally got the product funnel, sales page, ads, emails and social posts all set up, months had passed, and I had spent WAY more on help than I should have and I was literally so STRESSED out!!

It should not be this hard.

What if you could quickly design a digital workbook, planner or journal in the matter of minutes including choosing fonts, color palettes, pages and styles?

What if that quick digital product also came with suggested email copy, ad copy for promotion along with social media post templates and a promotion schedule?

Oh, and what if it all took less than 20 minutes?

Yup!! It works. I just tried it... and I fell in love... ha!
